Until an address has been supplied, a notice or other document may be given in any manner in which it might have been given if the death or bankruptcy or other event giving rise to such transmission had not occurred. 2.3 Any moneys payable in respect of the Loan Notes may be paid by cheque to the first named holder of the Loan Notes or by such other payment method as the Company and the relevant Noteholder may agree. Every cheque shall be made payable to (or to the order of) the holder of the Loan Notes and payment of the cheque shall be a satisfaction of the moneys represented thereby. No payment in respect of the Loan Notes made by the Company by cheque shall be deemed received until it is actually received by the Noteholder to whom it was sent. The Company may deduct or withhold from any payments any amount required by law to be deducted or withheld.

2.4 All of the Loan Notes repaid in accordance with this instrument shall be cancelled and the Company shall not keep them available for any purpose or reissue them.

3 INTEREST

3.1 Subject to Condition 3.2, no interest shall be payable by the Company in respect of the Loan Notes.

3.2 The Company may, with the sanction of a Special Resolution, agree to pay interest in respect of the Loan Notes at any rate determined by the Company.

Schedule 3

Provisions for meetings of Noteholders

1 The Company or Holdco may at any time and, upon such requisition as is specified in paragraphs 23 and 24 of this Schedule, shall convene a meeting of the Noteholders. Any such meeting shall be held at such place as the Company may reasonably require.

2 Unless the holders of not less than 90% of the nominal value of the Loan Notes shall otherwise agree, 14 days' notice at least (exclusive in each case of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given) of every meeting shall be given to the Noteholders in the manner provided in this Schedule 3. The notice shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting and the terms of the resolution or resolutions to be proposed. The accidental omission to give notice to, or the non-receipt of notice by, any of the Noteholders shall not invalidate the proceedings at any meeting. A Noteholder whose address on the register is not within the United Kingdom shall not be entitled to receive notice of any meeting unless he has given to the Company an address within the United Kingdom to which such notices are to be sent.

3 At any meeting the quorum shall be persons holding or representing by proxy a majority in nominal value of the Loan Notes for the time being outstanding. No business (other than the choosing of a chairman) shall be transacted at any meeting unless the requisite quorum is present at the commencement of business.

4 If within a quarter of an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present the meeting if convened upon the requisition of Noteholders shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to such day and time not being less than 14 days nor more than 28 days thereafter and to such place as may be appointed by the chairman and at such adjourned meeting two persons being Noteholders or proxies for Noteholders and entitled to vote whatever the nominal amount of Loan Notes held by them shall be a quorum for the transaction of business. Unless the holders of not less than 90% of the nominal value of the Loan Note shall otherwise agree, at least 10 days' notice of any adjourned meeting of Noteholders shall be given in the same manner mutatis mutandis as for an original meeting and such notice shall state that the two Noteholders present in person or by proxy whatever the amount of Loan Notes held by them will form a quorum.

5 Some person (who may but need not be a Noteholder) nominated by the Company may take the chair at every such meeting but if no such person is nominated or if at any meeting the person nominated is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting the Noteholders present shall choose one of their number to be chairman. Any director, the secretary and the solicitors of the Company and any other person authorised on behalf of the Company may attend and speak at any such meeting.

6 Every resolution submitted to a meeting of the Noteholders shall, unless a poll is demanded, be decided by a show of hands.

7 At any meeting of Noteholders, unless a poll is demanded by the chairman or by one or more Noteholders present in person or by proxy and holding or representing in the aggregate not less than 10% of the nominal amount of the Loan Notes, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority shall be conclusive.

8 If at any meeting a poll is demanded it shall be taken in such manner and (subject as hereinafter provided) either at once or after an adjournment as the chairman directs and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the resolution on which the poll has been demanded. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

9 In the case of an equality of votes whether on a show of hands or on a poll the chairman of the meeting shall not be entitled to a casting vote in addition to the vote to which he may be entitled as a Noteholder.

10 The chairman may with the consent of (and shall if so directed by) any meeting adjourn the same from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business which might lawfully have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

11 Any poll demanded at any meeting on the election of a chairman or on any question of adjournment shall be taken at the meeting without adjournment.

12 At any meeting on a show of hands every Noteholder who (being an individual) is present in person or by proxy or (not being an individual) is present by its duly authorised representative or by proxy, unless the proxy (in either case) or the representative is himself a Noteholder entitled to vote, shall have one vote. On a poll every Noteholder who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote in respect of each one penny of Loan Notes held by him and a person entitled to more than one vote need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

13 In the case of joint registered holders of Loan Notes any one of them may vote either in person or by proxy and in the latter case as if such joint holder were solely entitled to such Loan Note. If more than one of the joint holders is present at any meeting either personally or by proxy that one of the joint holders present whose name as between himself and the others present stands first in the register as one of the joint holders shall alone be entitled to vote in person or by proxy.

14 Every instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing under the hand of the appointor or his attorney duly authorised or in the case of a corporation under its common seal or the hand of an attorney or officer duly authorised. The Company may, but shall not be bound to, require evidence of the authority of any such attorney or officer.

15 The person appointed as proxy need not be a Noteholder.

16 An instrument of proxy shall be in the usual common form or in any other form which the Board may prescribe. The proxy shall be deemed to confer the authority to demand or join in demanding a poll. A proxy whether in the usual or common form or not shall, unless the contrary is stated thereon, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates and need not be witnessed.

17 The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of such power or authority shall be deposited at such place as may be directed in the notice or any document accompanying the notice convening the meeting or in case there is no such place appointed then at the registered office of the Company not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting or for taking of the poll at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy is given unless notification in writing of the death, insanity or revocation is received at the registered office of the Company prior to the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting or the taking of the poll at which the vote is given.

18 A meeting of the Noteholders shall in addition to any other powers have the following powers exercisable by way of a Special Resolution:

18.1 (in each case only so far as such sanction is required by law) power to sanction any scheme for the reconstruction of the Company or for the amalgamation of the Company with any other company;

18.2 power to sanction any abrogation, modification or compromise of or any arrangement in respect of the rights of the Noteholders against the Company whether such rights arise under these Conditions or otherwise and in particular, power to sanction any arrangement for postponing or accelerating the time for the payment of the principal moneys in respect of the Loan Notes or any part thereof or for the exchange or acceptance in satisfaction of the Loan Notes of any shares, debentures, loan note or other obligations or securities of the Company or any other company formed or to be formed;

18.3 power to sanction the release of the Company from liability in respect of all or any part of the moneys owing on the Loan Notes; and

18.4 power to give any authority, sanction, direction or request which under any of the provisions of the instrument is required to be given by way of Special Resolution or Ordinary Resolution.

19 A Special Resolution and an Ordinary Resolution passed at a meeting of the Noteholders duly convened and held in accordance with these Conditions shall be binding on all the Noteholders whether present or not at such meeting and each of the Noteholders shall be bound to give effect thereto and the passing of the resolution shall be conclusive evidence that the circumstances justify the passing of the resolution.

20 The expression "Special Resolution" means a resolution passed at a meeting of the Noteholders by a majority consisting of not less than 75% of the persons voting on a show of hands or, if a poll is demanded, by a majority consisting of not less than 75% of the votes given on such poll. The expression "Ordinary Resolution" means a resolution passed by a majority of the persons on a show of hands or of the votes given on a poll.

21 A resolution in writing signed by all the Noteholders for the time being entitled to receive notices of meetings (or being corporations by their authorised representatives) (Written Resolution) shall be as effective as if it had been a Special Resolution or an Ordinary Resolution passed at a meeting of the Noteholders duly convened and held in accordance with these Conditions and may consist of several documents in like form signed by or on behalf of one or more such persons.

22 Minutes of all resolutions and proceedings at every meeting shall be made and duly entered in books to be from time to time provided for that purpose by the Company and any such minutes if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting of the Noteholders shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein contained and until the contrary is proved every such meeting in respect of the proceedings of which minutes have been made shall be deemed to have been duly held and all resolutions to have been duly passed.

23 The Company shall, on the requisition of Noteholders holding at the date of deposit of the requisition not less than 5% of the nominal amount of the outstanding Loan Notes, immediately convene a meeting of Noteholders.

24 The requisition must state the objects of the meeting, must be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the registered office of the Company and may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more requisitionists.
